Let's Start!

What clothes are in your closet?

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you go through your closet to take out old clothes?
- How often do you find things that you hardly ever wear?
- What do you do with your old clothes?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about clothes and appearance.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can compare two things.

Let's Explore!

Peter needs help finding something presentable to wear!

* "Presentable" clothing is appropriate to the occasion.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: What are you wearing to your graduation?
Peter: Wearing? Something comfortable I think.
Vanessa: Something nice is better.
Peter: Could you help me pick something out?
Vanessa: Sure. I can do that. Take the computer to your room and show me what's in your closet. Can you pull some things out?
Peter: Yep. How about about this shirt?
Vanessa: Could you find something newer and cleaner?
Peter: This one?
Vanessa: That's nicer. Now, pants.
Peter: Darker or lighter pants?
Vanessa: Darker pants are the best choice. Would you hold them in the light, please?
Peter: Okay. Here you go.
Vanessa: The ones on the left are the most presentable.
Peter: Shoes? These are the most comfortable ones.
Vanessa: They're okay. Get them polished. Now you need a brighter tie to pull the outfit together.
Peter: Can I wear this one?
Vanessa: Yes. Good choice. Now you're all set.

Let's Practice!
