Let's Start!

School is finished!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- When does your school year start and end?
- Which time do you prefer? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about events after a period of time.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.

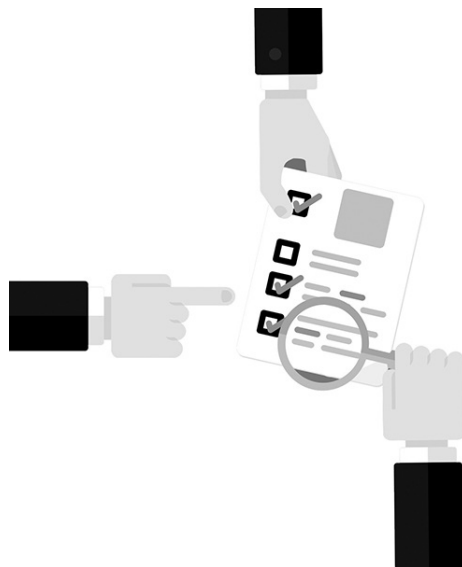

Let's Explore!

Peter and Vanessa catch up!

* When you "catch up" you and your friends talk about all the things that happened after you talked last.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Vanessa? It's Peter. How are you?

Vanessa: Peter! I was just getting ready to call you when the phone rang!

Peter: I was talking to Sally yesterday. She said she was getting ready to come back.

Vanessa: Did she tell you when she was flying home?

Peter: No, she didn't. She said she would call as soon as she knew.

Vanessa: You're finished school, right?

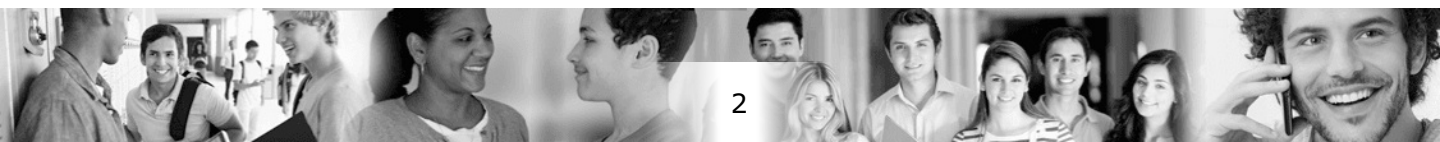

Peter: Yeah. A group of us went out last night. We discussed all of the projects and essays we turned in while we were working part-time. I complained about Accounting. Others hated Public Relations.

Vanessa: Did they all do an internship like you?

Peter: Before the course was over, everyone was working. It was rough.

Vanessa: Meanwhile, I was enjoying every moment of my cooking classes.

Peter: Whenever I saw food in a magazine, I thought of you cooking. I envied you. I was always exhausted after my day was done.

Learning Points

Expressions of Time

You use transition words or connectors to indicate when something happened or was happening.

These connectors are often followed by the Simple Past tense. They help say when something happened.

Expression	Meaning
as soon as	without delay; quickly
yesterday	on the day before this one
after	afterward; later
before	previous to; earlier or sooner than
when	at the moment
whenever	every time; any time
meanwhile	at or during the same time

Examples:

- She said she would call as soon as she knew.
- Whenever I saw a food magazine, I thought of you cooking.

Learning Points

Simple Past tense versus Past Continuous tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished.

You use the Past Continuous to talk about events or an action that was happening at a time in the past.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask...?

Did is the past form of to do.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb"ing" to verbs. Some verbs need a change to the last letter to add "ing".

Present	Past	Past Continuous
talk	talked	was/were talking
get	got	was/were getting
fly	flew	was/were flying
work	worked	was/were working
discuss	discussed	was/were discussing
enjoy	enjoyed	was/were enjoying

Examples:

- Did she tell you when she was flying home?
- She said she was getting ready to come back.
