

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

This is the best day ever!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- When was your best day ever?
- Who were you with?
- Why was it such a good day?

Can Do Statements

- I can react and comment on a story.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can compare two things.

Let's Explore!

Is Peter nodding off during the speech?

* When you "nod off", you fall asleep for a short time.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Camilla: Wow! That was a great valedictorian speech! It was just the right length, too!
- Peter: Amazing! I didn't even fall asleep!
- Camilla: It was inspiring and brought back good memories!
- Peter: She sounded quite self-assured and like she really meant what she said!
- Camilla: She said just what I was thinking. She got the highest grades in our year. She's starting at a law firm next week!
- Peter: Unbelievable! I wonder who got the lowest grades?
- Camilla: Peter!
- Peter: I meant I was not the best student. I didn't get high marks.
- Camilla: You did better than some and worse than others. We can't all be overachievers!
- Peter: Anyway, she really got my attention. I'm more energized now and awake and ready to party!
- Camilla: No! Really? You're a riot! You feel more awake because you took a nap!
- Peter: Get out of here!
- Camilla: It wasn't a long nap. Come on. It's time to stand up and throw our mortar boards!

Let's Practice!

Was Peter a better student than his classmates?

Instructions: Practice reading the sentences aloud.

1. I'm more energized now and awake and ready to party!
2. I wonder who got the lowest grades.
3. I meant I was not the best student.
4. You did better than some and worse than others.
5. She got the highest grades in our year.

Let's Practice!

She owns a company? No!

Instructions: Write the words in the correct category.

Word Bank

I see / Uh huh / Amazing / Hmmm /
Wow / Really / Unbelievable

Expressing Surprise

Not Expressing Surprise

Extension Activity

Talk about a memorable occasion.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Ask your partner to tell you about a memorable occasion they were part of.
- Ask about the people that were there, and the things that happened.
- Use expressions of surprise as they talk to you.
- Change roles and talk again.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I ask my partner questions about an occasion.

☐ ☐

I ask about the people and events.

☐ ☐

I express surprise.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to bring back (expression): to make one remember
e.g. This place brings back memories!
- grade (noun): mark; standing in a course
e.g. Who has the highest grades in the class?
- our year (expression): the year a person graduates
e.g. People in our year will do well in the world.
- energized (adjective): active; full of energy
e.g. That nap energized me.
- mortar board (noun): a traditional hat worn to a graduation ceremony
Example: We threw our mortar boards in the air after the ceremony.

Learning Points

Comparative and Superlative Adjectives

You use comparative adjectives to compare yourself to another person.
You use superlative adjectives to compare yourself to a group of people.

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
good	better	the best
bad	worse	the worst
high	higher	the highest
low	lower	the lowest

Examples:

- I wasn't the best student.
- You were better than some and worse than others.

Reacting to and Commenting on Stories

When you want to show interest, your intonation rises. Your voice goes up.

When you show surprise, your intonation falls. Your voice goes down.

Showing Surprise (falling intonation)

No!
Amazing!
Wow!
Unbelievable!
I can hardly believe it!

Examples:

- Anne: She won five awards this year alone.
- Tom: Amazing!

